

Intelligent. Connected. Real Estate.

Own Your City. PropertyIDX is New York City's #1 investment sales marketplace. As an Investment Deal Exchange (IDX), we provide comprehensive listing and real estate market data.

We partner with over 3,500 landlords and brokers to increase property visibility, generate leads, and increase deal flow.

As NYC's largest landlord network, we provide a vibrant investment sales marketplace, deep and proprietary data, and useful research tools to help real estate professionals simplify the complex real estate industry.

Vision

We believe an intelligent and connected real estate industry will lead to, (1) higher lead generation, (2) eliminate time on market, and (3) increase deal flow.

Mission

We are on a mission to disrupt conventional real estate by empowering landlords and real estate professionals using innovative technology.

What We Do

We create disruptive and innovative real estate-marketing technology for landlords, brokers, and real estate professionals.
